ANZ Senior Economist, Catherine Birch, commented:

ANZ-Roy Morgan Australian Consumer Confidence declined a touch last week and has remained within the 80-85 range for 15 consecutive weeks. Inflation expectations rose to 5.2% going into the Easter long weekend, likely reflecting higher petrol prices. But households may have also felt more keenly the current bout of high chocolate inflation, driven by surging global cocoa prices. Confidence among those paying off their homes rose 1.2pts to 80pts, was largely steady at 81.7pts for renters, and fell 2.1pts to 86.0pts for outright homeowners.
