ANZ Senior Economist, Adelaide Timbrell, commented:

ANZ-Roy Morgan Australian Consumer Confidence was practically unchanged last week and is still running above all weekly results in 2023 after the 5 February. Confidence in both the short- and medium-term economic outlook declined sharply after news that the unemployment rate rose to a two-year high of 4.1% in January, but both were still above their respective 2023 averages. Confidence about household financial conditions offset the weekly drop in economic confidence despite an increase in inflation expectations.

Consumer confidence rose 0.2pts last week
